143 POND STREET - COHASSET, MASSACHUSETTS 02025

DEDICATION

September 11, 2001 is a day we will not soon forget.

On this memorable Tuesday, all of us felt shaken and devastated by the horrific terrorist attacks on America. The prestigious twin towers of the World Trade Center collapsed after terrorists drove two commercial airliners into these landmark buildings that defined New York City. Following this tragedy came two more attacks, one in Pennsylvania and one at the Pentagon in Washington, D.C. Thousands of American lives were lost, including policemen and firemen, mothers and fathers, family and friends.

We will never forget this senseless act of terrorism, or the thousands of Americans who lost their lives. The Class of 2002 salutes these innocent victims and the heroes of this great nation: those who risked their lives to selflessly save others. Thank you for your compassion and bravery.

"And so I cry nothing else to say. . . here in the ashes of the mundane . . . as my pretty little world . . . all comes crashing down around me. . . My Life In Sand."

And a few parting thoughts... BLAM, DR Crew, I like Popsicles, iwillruletheplanet, your mom, used CDs all the way, ice cream makes people happy, die, behold the fires of Gabriel! "You yes you!" You know EXACTLY what I mean, CRUX just cause it's a cool word, HAIL JESUS CHRIST ALMIGHTY, that was an order, I swear there is a radio in my fingernail, I also swear, notice I didn't put anyone I know in this . . . you know if you are and if you don't . . . then that's obviously because you're a bad person.

Yeah so this and everything I've said to you for as long as you have or have not known me has been a joke. HAHA.

I hope you've been offended by this. It makes me happy.

"Your children are not your children.
They are Life's longing for itself.
They come through you but not from you.
And though they are with you,
they belong not to you."
-Kahlil Gibran

Paulie,
Point your bow as close to the wind as possible.
Crank the lines in taught and stretch the sails — till they almost rip.
Heal the hull over as far as it will go.
Let the salt spray sting your face and
"see the feel" of life.
Thanks for all the laughter, the challenges,
being our hero and keeping our lives
spinning out of control — what a ride!

Remember who you are,
who always loves you,
and where you come from.
There's no place like home...

Mom, Dad, Jake and Mary

"I Hope You Dance" by Mark Sanders and Tia Sellers
I hope you never lose your sense of wonder.
You keep your fill to eat but always keep that hunger
May you never take one single breath for granted
God forbid love ever leave you empty-handed
I hope you still feel small when you stand beside the ocean.
Whenever one door closes I hope one more opens
Promise me that you'll give faith a fighting chance,
And when you get the chance to sit it out or dance
I hope you dance...

Congratulations Amanda, We know you're a "dancer" and we're proud of you!
Love, Mom and Dad

David, your sensitivity and thoughtfulness towards others are characteristics you have personally developed. The future brings the ride of a lifetime! Experience it, challenge it, learn from it and share it with others. The time has come for you to step into the next important level of your life. This is where you apply everything we all taught you. Make your decisions wisely, because as you have learned, the right decision should be made when the positive outcome weighs more than the negative one. Continue to grow with your future education. Remember, we will always love you!
Love, your 2 friends,

THIS BRIDGE

This bridge will only take you halfway there
To those mysterious lands you long to see:
Through gypsy camps and swirling Arab fairs
And moonlit woods where unicorns run free.
So come and walk awhile with me and share
The twisting trails and wondrous worlds I've known.
But this bridge will only take you halfway there-
The last few steps you' take alone.

We love you more than words can tell!
